PORTSMOUTH PEOPLE TO ELECT THEIR OFFICIALS

The Senate Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns met yesterday afternoon in the Canak-room of the Senate, and some became busy, with the consideration of the Bland bill to amend the charter of the city of Portsmouth so as to private for the ecction of the city cists, city attorney, chef of the fire department, city physician and plumbing inspector by popular vote, instead of by the Council, as now.

McCarthy Council.

McCarthy Council. No. 408. Royal Arcanum, will hold its regular meeting to night at Lee Camp Hall at 8 o'clock. Much husiness of importance will be transacted as there are several matters in the preparations for the installation of the newly elected officers and the annual banquet, which always follows the instillation ceremony, will be completed at this meeting.

The committee appointed to make arrangements for the union celebration of the several councils will also make its report.
